

May 26th, 2024 - Pastor Chadwick Anderson
Beyond the Acts: God's Chosen; Acts 15:12-35

Even though this was a _____ thing, this was the _____ thing God had already been proclaiming since the very beginning. (Genesis 12:3, Isaiah 49:6, Psalm 22:27)

When God does something new, it can be seen in the ways God has already revealed Himself throughout _____.

When we turn to God in Jesus, we do end up living _____ different from the world.

Noahide Laws:

1. Establish Laws to _____
2. Do not _____/curse God
3. Do not worship _____
4. Do not steal
5. Do not murder
6. Do not commit _____ immorality
7. Do not eat the _____ of an animal (draining blood guarantees it has died)

How we consume, what we _____, and how we relate to the _____ we've been called to help steward, all testify to what we truly believe about God and ourselves.

When God or our fellow humanity isn't experienced within the context of the vulnerable relationships we were created for, we will often seek to manufacture experiences of false _____.

A casual regard for our sexuality will always result in the _____ of our ability to relate in healthy ways, denying God's image in "the other", treating them as if they exist for our fulfillment.

There are no _____ members in the family of God.