Salvation Means Healing; James 5:13-20

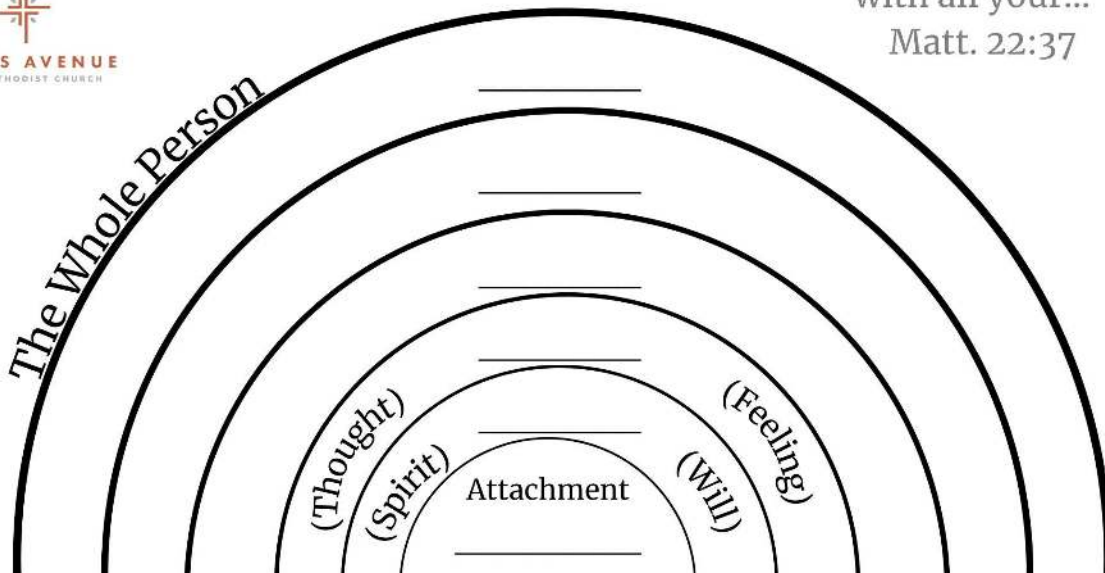

When a New Testament author writes “12” or the “12 tribes”, they often mean “all the _____ of God”.

What we’re _____ matters to God.

Components of the Human Person

“Love the Lord
with all your...”
Matt. 22:37

In _____ we discover a new context for what troubles us. We discover God’s eternal perspective, and we also increase in our _____ attachment.

If we’re singing praises to God, we’re building/reinforcing attachment love with God in our core _____.

Call all the elders. Seek _____ and understanding from others who may be familiar with your weakness.

When we see others living in the _____ of God’s perspective, it reminds and reinforces His reality in our lives as well.

Consecration entrusts our reality into God's _____ purposes and care.

Our _____ from one another and from God, often caused by unconfessed sin, keeps us from experiencing restoration and healing in a way we all deeply need.
