Beyond the Acts: Bound for Death; Acts 23:12-22

“Am I prepared to _____ in a way that I would sacrifice anything else I value in order to remain faithfully obedient to the ways of Jesus and His Love?”

- “Am I regularly _____ to what the Love of Jesus is asking of me?”

“Friends in Christ, I commend to your love and care these persons whom we this day recognize as members of our church. Do all in your power to strengthen their _____, confirm their _____, and perfect them in _____.” (Free Methodist Book of Discipline, 2023)

“As Christians, therefore, we refuse to swear unreserved loyalty to any _____ since we see such an allegiance to be in direct conflict with unconditional surrender to Jesus Christ as Lord.” (Free Methodist Book of Discipline, 2023)

Live faithfully in obedience to God, without the need to convince anyone by any words more than the proof found in your _____ itself.

God’s people had bound themselves together for the purposes of _____.

- _____ 3

“The _____ you’re being presented with is not the True reality that exists.”

We are constantly being asked to take another bite of the fruit growing on the tree of trusting _____, over trusting God’s guidance and provision.

We are no longer those bound for the purposes or destiny of _____.
